

Book Report

1. Don't sweat it. It will not be graded. Any effort is considered as acceptable.
2. This is a great time to reflect on a book you read this year that has meant a lot to you personally, socially, emotionally, and spiritually. Share the main themes of the book and how the book shed light on your life.
3. We prefer that the paper be observational, subjective, and personal as well as educational.
4. Glorify God above any writer, teacher, or staff person.
5. Give it a cover sheet with name of the book, author, student name, and date.
6. Type 2 pages, double-spaced.
7. Give credit for quoted info using parenthetical notation and footnotes or bibliography.
8. Remember I Cor 2:4
